Foreword

Unique Photos Part III is a continuation of earlier photo compilations (Unique Photos I and II). The present volume covers photos taken in the years 2008-2009.

As mentioned in the foreword of the two earlier publications, the caption in each photo is meant to reflect the innermost feelings of the author, devoid of malice or inhibition to highlight a unique situation. Any remarks therefore which appear obnoxious was never meant to cast aspersion on the subject.

Some of the photos are bold as the compilation is geared for matured individuals.

In view of the author's exposure as Chairman of the Freedom to Publish Committee of the International Publishers Association (IPA) for ten years now, our mental faculties should not be cluttered by restrictions otherwise the quest for knowledge would be hampered.

At the bottom portion of each page are the names of carriers with brief description of their operations and their alliance with other airlines for mileage purposes, among others.
