Atty. Dominador D. Buhain

Foreword

As mentioned in the foreword of the three earlier publications, the caption in each photo is meant to reflect the innermost feelings of the author, devoid of malice or inhibition to highlight a unique situation. Therefore, any remark which appears obnoxious is never meant to cast aspersion on the subject.

In view of the author's exposure as Chairman of the Freedom to Publish Committee of the International Publishers Association (IPA) for more than a decade, he believes that "our mental faculties should not be cluttered by restrictions; otherwise, the quest for knowledge would be hampered."

A certain type of flower with its name, origin, and explanation of its symbolism is placed at the bottom portion of each page.
